1.0 OBJECTIVES

The main objective of the LNU Strategic Performance Management System (SPMS) is directed towards a performance-oriented culture among its faculty and staff and to increase their understanding as to how their individual outputs count toward achieving the university MFOs and outcomes and in the process, help in achieving national outcomes as to its impact towards improving quality of lives, especially of the poor. Specifically, LNU SPMS will:

- 1.1 Align the university's performance with the Philippine Development Plan which is results oriented, the university's Strategic Plan, and the Organizational Performance Indicator Framework of the national government which focuses on strategic national and sectoral priorities in allocating scarce budgetary resources of the government and thus, make government officers/managers accountable for the strategies they develop and the outputs they are expected to deliver in pursuit of these priorities
- 1.2 Ensure the university's effectiveness by cascading institutional accountabilities to the various levels within the university's hierarchy especially in showing what outcomes the expenditure will produce
- 1.3 Link the LNU SPMS with other HR systems to ensure adherence to the principle of performance-based tenure and incentives and rewards system
- 1.4 Foster continuous improvement of employee's performance efficiency and productivity
- 1.5 Record attendance of workers for government regulations and laws
- 1.6 Provide data for payroll making purposes

2.0 SCOPE

- 2.1 This procedure applies to the performance management of LNU's employees in the career and non-career service

3.0 POLICIES
